SUMMARY OF THE REASONS FOR DECISION:

The DVD entitled The Man Who Wasn't There, is classified as:

Objectionable except if the availability of the publication is restricted to persons who have attained the age of 16 years.

This publication is a DVD version of the video recording entitled The Man Who Wasn't There classified by the Office of Film and Literature Classification as objectionable except if the availability of the publication is restricted to persons who have attained the age of 16 years, with the descriptive note 'Contains violence and sex scenes.' This decision was registered on 23rd January 2002.

The DVD also contains various notices, two television trailers for the feature, publicity stills, brief cast filmographies, a short documentary on the making of the film and an interview with the cinematographer. However the additional components do not contain anything that would result in the DVD receiving a different classification to that given to the video recording.
